"We have gone thoroughly into the proposal to issue the $3,000,000 worth of bonds for Grady hospital and Battle Hill sanitarium and find that we cannot issue the bonds unless we ask for a tax increase," Mr. Murphy said.

Council already has passed the ordinance providing for the bond election to be held February 5, and the provision approved by council at its special session Friday afternoon is that taxes shall be increased from $1.50 a $100 assessment to $1.65 for each $100 assessment in order to provide interest and sinking funds and operation and administration for the proposed additions to be made to Grady and Battle Hill.

If the bonds are passed, Grady will get $2,000,000 and Battle Hill $1,000,000.

Reconstruction of all hospital fa-cilities and enlargment of the plants are contemplated from the funds.

Atlanta's city council at a special session Friday afternoon moved to extend the city's hospitality to two important delegations of visitors to the southern metropolis next week.

It voted authority to e.ect a great welcome sign to the Cuban good-will delegation at Marietta and Spring streets and set up a fund of $750 for entertainment of a delegation of prominent citizens from New Orleans and Louisiana. Mayor T. Semmes Walmsley, of the Queen City, will head the latter group.

Application blanks for 1930 automobile licenses will be maffed to dealers and county officials about December 15, it was announced Friday by George Carswell, secretary of state. The blanks this year are of the same style as were used last year, requiring the applicant to fill out only two forms. Several years ago four had to be filled out with the same information. The tags themselves will not be sold until January 2. January 2.

Gipsu Horse-Traders Are Required To Pay $350 Tax, State Holds

The colorful sales of gipsy horse-traders are legitimate in Georgia, but only after payment of a tax of $350, it was ruled Friday by William B. Harrison, comptroller general.

Harrison, comptroller general.

The ruling was in response to a number of inquiries from county tax officials, who stated that gipsies and other itinerant traders had been ordering mules from Tennessee and auctioning them off in various sections of Georgia after paying only a $10 live stock tax in each county.

The general tax act provides that traveling live stock dealers are subject to a tax of $250 in each county, and auctioneers to a license fee of $100. "It was the purpose of the act to protect legitimate dealers," the comptroller general stated.

Assurance of continued activity in track improvement work by the Southern Railway system throughout the first half of 1930 was given in the announcement Friday by vice Fresident P. B. Pegram that the Southern had contracted for 44,200 tons of new steel rail, enough to lay 270 miles of track, for delivery from January to July.

The entire order was given to the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railrond Company and the rail will be rolled at the Ensley, Ala., plant, near Bicmingham. The order includes 11,000 tons of rail, weighing 130 pounds to the yard, 24,800 tons of 100-pound rail, 3,000 tons of 90-pound rail, and 5,400 tons of 85-pound rail.

"As part of its improvement program during recent years," said Mr. Pegram, "the Southern has equipped the majority of its heavy traffic mileage with 100-pound rail but recently has gone farther and begun laying 130-pound rail at points where operating conditions are most severe. This is the heaviest section of rail in general use on the railroads of the United States."

Hoover's Constructive Business Psychology Shows Quick Results

Federal Reserve Reports Decrease of $137,000,000 in Brokers' Loans for Past Week.

BY ROBERT C. ALBRIGHT.

United News Staff Correspondent, WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Govern ment trade reports today struck a more buoyant note, as President Hoover's constructive business psychology began to be reflected in current com-began to be reflected in current commercial transactions.

Further welcome news was forthcoming from the federal reserve board. It reported a decrease of $137,000,000 in brokers' loans for the week ending November 27. Reflecting the tremendous liquidation that has taken place in the stock market, the present loan total of $3,450,000,000 contrasts with $6,804,000,000 on October 2.

The board's condition statement showed a slight improvement in the ratio of total reserves to deposits, the ratio now standing at 71.8 per cent, as against 71.2 a week ago.

According to check payment data made public by the commerce department today a substantial advance in business activity over the previous week and the corresponding period of 1929 accompanied the initial week of the Hoover "prosperity" conferences.

Meanwhile the president, encouraged by the widespread willingness to co-operate in his plans to accelerate the movement of trade, won a brief respite from activities that for two weeks past have made the White House a mecca for leaders in every branch of labor, agriculture and industry.

Julius Barnes, chairman of the board of the United States Chamber of of the United States Chamber of Commerce, are reported to be following up advantages gained in the preliminary White House conferences, to the end that a national council, or "clearing house" for American business, may be established.

The president will address a meeting of representative businessmen to be held Thursday for this purpose at the Chamber of Commerce here. Plans for creating a council for correlating agricultural activities and another in the interests of labor also are reported under way.

Improvement in the tone of commercial statistical data is not only apparent in the commerce department survey of business for the week ended November 23, but in wholesale and retail trade figures given out by the federal reserve board, showing increased wholesale distribution and a larger volume of department store sales.

Favorable features of the commerce survey were: A decrease in the number of business failures under a year ago, a further decline in petroleum production under the previous week, ago, a further decline in perfoieding production under the previous week, cuts in wholesale prices below a year ago, and a steadying of the bond market after recent declines. Cotton prices were above the prior week's level, and interest rates took a further drop.

ago, and a steadying of the bond market after recent declines. Cotton prices were above the prior week's level, and interest rates took a further drop.

Steel Declines.

It must be noted, however, that steel plant activity declined further and was considerably less than a year ago; the output of bituminous coal was smaller; and receipts of wheat, cotton and cattle were below either prior period. Prices of iron and steel and of wheat showed a declining tendency and bank loans and discounts were greater than a year ago.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 29.—(P)—
Purchase of the valuable hardwood properties at Laurel, Miss., of the Marathon Lumber Company and the Wassau-Southern Lumber Company, of Memphis, was announced tonight by George McSweyn, treasurer of the Memphis concern. The purchase price was not revealed, but it is one of the largest timber transactions consummated in the south in many years.

By the deal the Bruce company acquires all standing hardwood timber on 10,000 acres, the huge band mill of the Marathan company in North Laurel, and valuable real estate in the city of Laurel. J. M. Bissell, treasurer and manager of the Marathon mill, was here when the transaction was announced.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—(P)—
An investigation by a house committee of the cottonseed oil industry to determine whether the federal trade commission has aided mills in fixing cottonseed prices would be authorized under a resolution Representative Patman, democrat, Texas, plans to introduce Monday.

The inquiry would be made to ascertain "whether there be a combination to fix the prices of cottonseed or the prices of any product produced from cottonseed in violation of the anti-trust laws."

Contending in a statement today that "there is a cottonseed oil trust in the south that has fixed the price of cottonseed this fall." Patman said. "this illegal competition" had cost southern cotton farmers $50,000,000 to $100,000,000.

A VERY TIMELY APPEAL.

In responding to President Hoover's appeal that the states enter promptly upon all possible construction works to forefend unemployment of labor and to preserve present prosperity, Governor Hardman very pertinently said:

A model of a British warship which will be sold soon at Satheby's will attract attention both sides of the Atlantic, in part because of its association with the family of George Washington. Nearly two centuries ago Admiral Edward Vernon, a member of parliament known throughout the navy as "Old Grog," announced boldly in parliament that he would capture Portobello with six ships, a challenge which he made good on November 21, 1739. His flagship was the Burford, a 70-gun ship, a model of wind in the fact that Lawrence Washington, the elder brother of George Washington, served under Admiral Vernon and in the model is due to the fact that Lawrence Washington, the elder brother of George Washington, served under Admiral Vernon and shad it not been for his mother George also would have entered the British navy under the patronage of Admiral Edward Vernon, who obtained for him a mid-shipman's warrant in 1746 when George was 14 years old.

About This Business of Reforming the Morals and Conduct of Youth.

Neither Cake-Eaters Nor Flappers.

My casual conversational contacts with these young people have been quite illuminating to me. From them I have learned much about their associates in student bodies and in social activities. Their frank and circumstantial statements indicate that the general run of our young fellows are not confirmed "cake-eaters," with vacuums in both their skulls and stomachs, and that the big majority of our young women are far from being cosmetized and Cotescented flappers who swap "dates" for free dinners and dances.

They who figure in those flagrant roles constitute only the dangling fringe of the social world on any of its levels.

lependent. They Need To Be Encouraged.

Next Monday young men and women of Atlanta are invited to attend a meeting at Wesley Memorial church, sponsored by the Church Council of the city. Those of them who will be interested enough to attend, will be given, I am assured, an opportunity to express themselves regarding the social and moral conditions among the youth of Atlanta.

It is quite to be desired that the elders in the meeting will not forestall the young people and scare them out of the debate by telling them in advance "where they are at and where they are going!" That is too often the bad rule adopted in dealing with the psychology of the youthful.

His pleasing and winning personality and his ability as a commander have won him the respect and admiration of his colleagues and stamp him as a leader whom his associates will willingly follow in protection of the lives and property of citizens of Atlanta.

The new chief of the fire department, John Terrell, has been a member of the Atlanta fire department for the past 38 years, having served for the past 38 years, having served for years as espisian and the past two years as assistant chief. He was

Where Morals Meet Corruption.
It is extraordinary when the morals of young persons are corrupted in the home. The fewest cases of the kind can be identified in any community. an be identified in any community.

But look over the amusement advertisements in our great city papers, and see the titles of the plays and pictures—they blaze down the columns like rows of red lights over the portals of the bagnios in the "burnt district" of the city. Who made those plays, pictures and suggestive titles? Well, they were and suggestive titles? Well, they were not made by the young men and young women of our cities. They were all made by men to whom moral cleanness is laughable and they are allowed to be shown to our youth by grown-up people who hunger to look at them.

A recent effort to ban one of them here in Atlanta was denied by grown people—not by the youthful people!

Where to Start Fumigating. Where to Start Fumigating.

It is my strong hope that the Monday night meeting will be full of sensible and brave young people who will tell the older people where to "get off!" It would be splendid to have the whole city council on the platform and to have the young people stick under their noses some of the rankest theatrical titles and some of the pornographic, pole-cat, so-called the pornographic, pole-cat, so-called "literature" with which so many of COMMANDER BYRD

The young people did not create bootleggers, and speakeasies, and hippocket flasks. It was all done by the grown-ups who "went bugs" on an impossible scheme of prohibition. The kids didn't vote the 18th amendment into the constitution; the sheiks and flappers did not enact the Volstead law; the high school boys, the college students, the young clerks and young wage workers do not set up stills, or smuggle liquor from abroad, or run rum cars across state lines.

All those are adult acts and adult crimes and only the adult voters of the community and the nation can make the officers and machinery to keep liquor temptations from the

The South Pole itself is supposed to be located on a plateau of some 10,000 feet in height, and the average height of the continent has been calculated at 6,000 feet, which is twice the average height of Asia.

Of the 5,000,000 square miles of Antarctica perhaps less than 100 square miles is not covered by the sheet of eternal ice, which in places is regarded as over 2,000 feet thick. Exceptionally low temperatures prevail, a mark of 77 degrees below zero Fahrenheit having been recorded once near the sea coast. WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—(P)—
The view that the Chinese-soviet situation in Manchuria was less serious tonight than for the past week was held by officials here, after indications from China that the two nations were endeavoring to effect an amicable settlement.

Ambassador Debuchi, of Japan, and Ambassador De Martino, of Italy, discussed the situation today with Nelson T. Johnson, assistant secretary of state, but the conversations were confined to an exchange of information received by the three governments from their representatives in China. Neither ambassador had been instructed to indicate to the Washington government the attitude of his government on the proposal made carly in the week by Secretary Stimson that the interested powers suggest means for clearing the atmosphere in Manchuria.

Arab-Jewish Riots Stimulant WHITEHALL WIDEN GOLDBERG WAS IN PALESTINE AT TIME OF MASSACRES

To Zionism, Journalist Says

BY HELEN AND OLIVE PARISH.

"Arab-Jewish race riots, recently held in Palestine, have served as a veritable baptism of blood for the Zionist movement toward regaining Israel's homeland," according to Abraham Goldberg. New York journalist, and vice president of the general council of the World's Zionist Association, who was in Palestine at the time of the massacres, and who arrived Friday in Atlanta to deliver a series of lectures.

"In a country having a racial triangle, like the Jews, Arabs and English in Palestine, marital and social relations become interesting, even dramatic. Palestinian Arabs are in a majority, but not an overwhelming one, whereas the Hebrews make up a large jority, but not an overwhelming one, whereas the Hebrews make up a large

Jewish claims to Palestine are four Jewish claims to Palestine are four in number, says Mr. Goldberg, who has been connected with Zionist work for 30 years. Historical precedence, the fact that the Jews are the only people on earth without territorial settlement, the circumstance that they have never given up hope, and that the Holy Land is now mainly unoccupied—all these factors combine to make the Jews assert their claim upon Palestine.

When racial war broke out, there were only 120 soldiers in the country, and these were mainly Arabic. A few agitators aroused a minority of Arabs by spreading the report that the Jews had either destroyed the sacred Mosque of Omar, or were about the Christian Patitic Paris Country of Christian Patitic Patiti sacred Mosque of Omar, or were about to do so. The British high councillor was out of the country, and his sub-stitute was anti-Semitic.

Jews Rallied to Defense. Jews Rallied to Defense.

The reason, says Mr. Goldberg, that only 150 people out of 180,000 were killed is that the Jews rallied to the national defense, as in the days of the Maccabees. The defense was remarkable for skill and strategy that equalled the tricks of Gideon's time. The modern Israelites in some localities did not blow trumpets and smash pitchers, but clattered together little pieces of metal, making a sound which gave the enemy the impression that the attacked had several machine guns.

The only place that did not put up

The only place that did not put up a convincing fight when attacked was a "college of learned," consisting principally of elderly people and young children, where 75 were massacred. Because of the utter fiendishness of the Arabian gruelty, the British offithe Arabian cruelty, the British official reaction was against ever letting the Arabs have self-government, thinks Mr. Goldberg.

r. Goldberg.
"Moral inferences are to be drawn "Moral inferences are to be drawn' from these sudden outbreaks. First of all, it is gratifying that, in spite of the calumnies spread, the majority of Arabs would not join in the attack. Secondly, it was unexpected and pleasing that the Jews could defend themselves as bravely as they did. Thirdly, it is perfectly clear that the British slipped up on their duty in not giving protection where they in not giving protection where they had promised it," according to Mr. Goldberg.

tricity from the waters of the historical river. French agronomists have been imported to plant fine vines, and oranges, or "golden apples" as they are called in the Near East. Malaria has been done away with, water improved, tobacco planted, industry stimulated, salt drawn from the waters of the Palestine sea, and housing and educational conditions Zionism Stimulated. Zionism has been really stimulated by these outrages, for they have called the world's attention to the rebirth of a nation, since Palestine is a soundboard of interest to the whole world. for people of many races and creeds Success of the South Fulton Civic Federation's efforts to secure widening and repaying of Whitehall street from the intersection of Forsyth street to Stewart avenue, seemed assured Friday night, following a mass meeting held at Lee Street school anditorium, according to W. W. Matthews, secretary of the organization. Representing the property owners on the east side of Whitehall, between Forsyth street and Stewart avenue. V. H. Kreigshaber announced that property owners of the west side of the street had ratified an agreement to pay east side property owners $20 per front foot for a 20-foot strip. "This announcement, coupled with the fact that the project is in the 1930 budgets of the county commissioners and council, assures the completion of this work in 1930, in my opinion," said Mr. Matthews.

Clarke Donaldson, Atlanta chief of construction, declared that he would co-operate in hastening completion of the work. Mayor Ragsdale, who was unable to be present, advised the meeting that the project had his approval. It is understood that the cost of removing the curbs and gutters will be defrayed by the city and that the county will pay for the paving.

TONIGHT SATURDAY, NOV. 30, 7 P. M.

> THERE are more people actively interested in bowling than in any other game. One reason why bowling is so popular is because it is always interesting, aye, even fascinating. The uncertainty and the unexpected is continually happening. Every frame is like a chapter of an exciting story. One can hardly wait to see what comes next. Bowling is primarily a game of skill and science and therefore develops accuracy and a strong, keen, alert mind. It makes no difference how much one bowls, there are always new combinations to solve. No one has ever yet or ever will become a perfect bowler. Like in any of the sciences, there is always more to learn and always room for improvement.

> Bowling at this time gives recreation, diversion, pleasure and healthful exercise to more people for more months of the year than any other class of sport, and is recommended by some of the best doctors in the country.

Miss Helen Riley Will Hold Georgia Road Will Discon-Conference With Local Committee.

Miss Helen Riley, who will assume office as director of the Atlanta Music Center on January 1, will arrive this morning for a preliminary visit. Miss Riley is a talented musician from New York and has been chosen to direct the new Music Center on account of her outstanding ability, and her successes in New York and in Europe, as an artist and as a teacher. Harry M. Atkinson, chairman of the committee in charge of the music center, has called a meeting for this afternoon and at that time the committee will discuss with Miss Riley plans for the center. Miss Riley also will inspect the offices of the center which are to be in the Phillips & Crew building on Peachtree street.

The music center is a result of Madame Olga Samaroff's visit to Atlanta last spring. At that time Madame Samaroff told the local group that the Juilliard Foundation might be willing to help start the Atlanta music center. The Atlanta citizens who were already interested in developing an organization which would stimulate all form of musical activity in the city without competing or interfering with any, grasped at the opportunity wrich Madame Samaroff held out to them and asked for and secured help from the Juilliard Foundation. A large part of the annual budget is provided by the foundation but a part also has been raised by the local committee.

"HAPPY GO LUCKY" DRAWS CAPACITY AUDIENCE TO 81

Despite the bitter cold outside, "Happy Go Lucky," one of the best colored shows of the year, drew a capacity audience to 81 Decatur street Friday night for the midnight frolic for white persons only. It was a show well worth the while.

Bessie Brown and George Williams are two of the best-known recording stars on the stage and their singing Friday night was all that could be asked. They were called on the stage several times for encores.

In addition to excellent blues singing, the show presented George Williams, Jr., world's champion toe tap Charleston dancer. Williams has appeared before Atlanta audiences before and his dancing was worthy of a champion.

A jazz orchestra enlivened the crowd considerably.

Manager Tom Bailey announced that one of the best colored musical comedies on Broadway will be here next week and another midnight frolic for white persons only will be given Friday night. It will be the first time that this show has appeared in the south and the first time off the Broadway stage.

NAVY RECRUITING OFFICE IN ATLANTA MEETS NEW QUOTA

An increase of 25 per cent in the navy quota for the Atlanta district, or a jump of from 40 to 50, has been met for November, Lieutenant Stanley A. Jones, recruiting officer in charge, said Lionday and with the increase ordered to continue through December the office has a large waiting list of eligible recruits.

Quotas for all recruiting offices have been hiked by the Navy Department so that the recruits can complete training by spring and be ready to be assigned to duty when the Navy's new three light cruisers are launched.

PREACHES SUND AT JACKSON HIL

The Rev. Julius R. Hi

If you have cheers, prepare to give them now. For with George Arliss in "Disraeli" the art of Talking Pictures enters a new phase!

Experts have been predicting that it would take ten years to perfect the audible film. The experts were wrong! For here is that perfection, achieved by Vitaphone years ahead of time!

Not only has Vitaphone transplanted every atom of dramatic power, superb suspense, and rapier wit that made George Arliss' "Disraeli" one of the historic stage successes of the century...It has done more than that... In a single stride it has not only attained but actually surpassed the stage's artistic standards, which thousands felt the screen could never even equal!

The fascination of the footlights fades before the larger lure of mammoth settings-Vitaphone's crisp, telling dialogue that seems to come from someone next to you—subtle shadings of expression that convey thoughts as well as words to every corner of the house-and a George Arliss of heightened stature and new intimacy, exceeding even the amazing brilliance of his classic stage performance.

Come! See for yourself! Let Vitaphone put you "on speaking terms" with Disraeli, amazing man of destiny who rose from obscurity to control a modern empire -all because he knew how to handle women-especially a Queen!

Look for the "Vitaphone" sign when you're looking for talking picture entertainment. You'll find it only on WARNER BROTHERS and FIRST NATIONAL PICTURES

Miss Nan Bagby Stephens has returned to Atlanta from Cedar Rapids. The Cedar Rapids press fairly teemed with praises relative to the appearance of one of Atlanta's most prominent and talented daughters, who quite captured the admiration and interest of her hearers in her talk on "The Theater" and the reading of her pist, a three-act comedy, entitled "Pirate." The First Presbyterian church choir of Cedar Rapids featured at one of the Sunday morning services during her visit an exquisite hymn. Read From "Pirate."

In the reading of "Pirate" she transported her listeners to New Orleans, the romantic city of 1814, when bucaneers and government openly entertained a brand of hate that seems to have been extinguished with them. It was a different America more than a century ago, and "Pirate" was the name given dashing Jean La Fitte, the leading character in the play, whose memory remains in southern history as the buccaneer gentleman, the drawing room favorite, merchant, and privateer. It was he who gave vent to "danger is the pertume of life." She read four scenes from the comedy in which the talented author breasented brilliant climaxes and assembling of facts which have been made through intensive research into the glowing history of Louisiana. ### THAN SOUTHERN FRUIT CAKE

IT CERTAINLY solves a lot of problems on your Christmas list to give your friends and family Southern Fruit Cakes. Give one to Aunt Sue, who disapproves of perfume; to Cousin Jane, who is such an expert at cookery herself and will especially appreciate the virtue of this cake. Or to those inconvenient men who don't smoke.

You can buy them in sizes from one pound up to five pounds, and the larger ones come in wonderful tins. And you may be certain it soon will be all eaten up. For never was there a cake so popular. Into it go the finest ingredients the world affords. Citron from Italy and spices from far-off tropic lands. Marvelous cherries from the finest orchards of France. Pineapple from Hawaii. And, in the light fruit cake, quantities of our own southern pecans. Truly you could find no more welcome gift. Nor one more certain to please anyone to whom you give it. You can buy Southern Fruit Cake, either light or dark, at nearly any grocer's.

The Black Shadows filled the Green Forest. It was very dark in some places. In other places it was dusky. Hooty leaned forward just a wee bit and hooted as only he can. Instantly he opened his ears as widely as possible. Ha! what was that? He had heard the faintest sound just back of the tree on which he sat. Silently he turned his head and looked hard in that direction. Then he sailed out from the top of the watchtower on those great, broad wings of his. In those great, broad wings of his. In those great eyes of his was a look of alert, fierce hunger. It was very dark, for the Black Shadows were very close together at the point from which that faint sound had come.

But what was that? There was something moving! It was just above that little hemlock tree. He couldn't see clearly what it was, but he was sure that it was furry. With a swift stroke or two of his great wings Hooty shot forward and struck with those great curved claws of his. He struck hard and he clutched hard. And then he let go as suddenly as he had struck.

Such a roar of rage as followed when Hooty the Owl struck. Hooty had made a very serious mistake. Yes, sir, he had made a very serious mistake. What he had seen was furry, but Hooty hadn't seen enough. What he seen was the back of Buster Bear's head as Buster had suddenly stood up back of a little hemlock tree. Hooty had seen the back of his head and one ear and that was all. You should have seen how quickly Hooty had turned in the air after he discovered his mistake. As you know, his wings made no sound. He had turned and disappeared behind a tree before Buster Bear could turn his head. So Buster Bear did not know what had hit him or who had hit him. Oh, but he was angry, was Buster Bear! He growled and he fairly roared with rage. He dug his great claws into a tree and tore out a big piece of bark, as if to show what he would do to the one who had struck him, if only he could find him. For a long time he looked this way and that way for this unseen enemy, and, of course, he looked in vain.

As for Hooty, he straightaway made for another part of the Green Forest to hunt for the remainder of that

Mrs. Rolin Grant Is Distinguished Visitor to Atlanta This Week

A most distinguished visitor in Atlanta at the present moment is Mrs. Rolin P. Grant, of New York city, who is the guest of her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Gardner, at their home on Peachtree street. She is a greaf-niece of James K. Polk, eleventh president of the United States, whose home in Columbia. Tenn, was dedicated as a national shrine last Saturday with an impressive ceremony.

The incentive for the purchase and restorntion of the homestead lies in the initial gift of $2,500 from Mrs. Grant, a sum that was promptly supplemented by state, city and Maury county donations. The residence was bought by the Polk Memorial Association, of which Mrs. James E. Caldwell is president, and descendants of President Polk have donated many interesting relics and personal effects from Mrs. Grant during her visit here.

I ch and Georgia have prepared for elash with all the determination a St. George. They have laid plans all the cunning of Shylocks—have, like Shylock, spent every moment in hoping for the sucs of those plans.

HOPES WON'T HELP.

They will toss hopes to the free-lowing winds this afternoon, how-ver, and set out to insure success the astuteness of their brains and hight of their arms. One, of burse, is doomed to failure. It is of in the books for both to win, me will be heartbroken, for both are set their hearts on winning. And, sone shall-lose, one shall win. Never use sight of this fact, however. Both ill fight.

LAST WEEK TOUGH.

Last Saturday, while the Jackets were breaking their necks trying to trim the Biddies, the Bullpups were dropping a one-sided battle to the young Tide of Alabama.

During the last week both teams have indulged in long and arduous sorkouts. Scrimmages have been the order of the day at both camps. The tapering-off process started with a complete rest on Thursday and ended with light workouts Friday afternoon as both squads ran signals for a time with the chill breezes cutting through their thin jerseys to instill pep.

The Junior Jackets, on their playground at the Flats, held long scrimmages of a family nature on Monday and Tuesday in a drive to polish the offense, which has been at a low ebb for the past few weeks. Wednesday they faced the Grey Devils and the Georgia plays, learned for varsity consumption, in a scrimmage and a tender of the Wildcats in the role of interferers for more favored elevens. Three times Tennessee has been undefeated in the signal drill on their own plays. Yesterday they ran signals. Today they attle.

At Athens the Bullpups went hrough much the same routine. They crimmaged. Most of the time they were going against the varsity in lills which were designed to give both the yearlings and the big squad essions on both offense and defense. The varsity has cashed its profits. The yearlings will be out to turn in its share of the chips this afternoon. From the viewpoint of a correspondent only partially thawed out, due to the non-appearance in snowbound Lexington of St. Bernard dogs with kegs of brandy at their throats, the tie game between Kentucky and Tennessee Thanksgiving Day stands out as a most remarkable football game.

Even the oldest inhabitant—and I talked to 96 of them last night in the battle-scarred lobby of the Phoenix hotel—had never seen such a terrific day for football. Lexington represents the frozen north of the conference and therefore has seen games played in all sorts of

WEATHER BEFUDDLES VOLS.

The weather undoubtedly dismayed Tennessee even more than it did Kentucky. The Volunteers were unused to playing with a stiff freezing wind whipping snow flakes into their faces and freezing to their eyelashes. Their hands were numb and raw. Snow and mud caked in between their short cleats. It By Herb Clark.

With the sounding of the whistle 2 o'clock this afternoon the Univity of Georgia and Georgia Tech 1 sail into action on the gridiron. It is seen will be the sward of Grant d, which has many times felt the of Bulldog and Jacket cleats as y spurred on to victory, were pushback to defeat.

The actors will be the members the freshman teams of the two injustions. The varsity squads will tripust one week later in Athens, to those fans to whom Grant is the normal spot for the meets of the two fighting elevens this than battle should be ample. Consequently Kentucky played a jam-up, well-ordered game, while the Volunteers—all save the imperturbable Bobby Dodd—were floundering and uncertain. One remarkable feature of the game was the absence of fumbles from scrimmage. Never a one was made. Kentucky ran 72 plays. They were working double and triple passes all afternoon.

double and triple passes all afternoon.

Yet never once did the sure-fingered backs drop the ball. Once the Kentucky center made a wild snap to Covington on punt formation. That was all. Tennessee made one bobble. McEver was hit high and low by two Kentuckians just as he caught a punt. But the whistle blew before he dropped the ball.

If any expert had predicted such a lack of fumbling on such a day he would have been hooted out of the country.

TENNESSEE'S BAD DAY.

Tennessee undoubtedly had its bad day. Such days come to every football team. The line was outcharged and the backs could not untrack themselves. Yet in their moment of extremity they had that uncanny good fortune to connect up a long pass that led to a touchdown in the last minute of play. Before that their offense had been nearer zero than the ther-

It takes that sort of luck to make great football teams. A squad of young college boys simply cannot play in top form forever. Tennessee has come nearer it than any team you know of with 30 games in three seasons and never more than a tie.

The only basis of comparison been the two teams is their showgraginst Auburn's Baby Tigers.

DRESSING ROOMS GLOOMY.

The game left both dressing rooms in semi-gloom. The Vols got little fun out of tying the score, for it cost them a championship. And Kentucky had a sweet victory snatched from them by the pesky Bobby Dodd and his hickory arm. And it discouraged any undue celebration Thanksgiving night.

Verily a tie score in football is the most exasperating occurrence in the field of sports. Nobody in the world enjoyed the game except the population of New Orleans.

As suggested before, if Tulane does not give the Wildcats gold footballs, Tulane is ungrateful.

FINE JOB. Mehre, assisted by Frank Thomas, has done a fine job of coaching this fall. I am not sure if the accomplishments of the two ex-Notre Damemen at Georgia isn't one of the best jobs of coaching the south has seen in some years. It ranks along with the accomplishments of Dan McGugin at Vanderbilt.

As Club Owner

Little, if anything, was expected of Mehre and Thomas. They had very little veteran material. Most of it was new. Even the veteran material was nothing to become excited about. The Georgia start was about as innuspicious a start as could have been made. Oglethorpe, an S. I. A. A. team, defeated the Bulldogs handily.

WISE BOYS.

The wise ones wagged "I-Told-Youfo" heads and wondered if Georgia would win from as many as one of the conference teams.

Furman was taken in, a new halfback elevated on Thursday from the third string to the first, running wild.

The Vale game came and it was in the bag for the Blue. The football experts considerable second-guessing, but there was not a man in all the thousands there who believed Georgia would win.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—(P)—The eastern football season will be brought to a spectacular climax tomorrow by the attempt of Captain Red Cagle's gallant Army team to check the wild rush of Notre Dame's warriors, undefeated contenders for the national gridiron championship.

The odds tonight were all in favor

The odds tonight were all in favor of Notre Dame, in spite of the fact that the fighting Irish enter the frag without their star center, Tim Moynihan, who broke his ankle a week ago, and minus the coaching direction of the famous Knute Rockne, kept at South Bend with an infected leg to listen to the game by radio.

The unbeaten Notre Dame array was a 2-to-1 favorite in the wagering, but the Army has completed plans for a sustained attack, led by Captain Cagle, making the last eastern appearance of his brilliant career. West Point's hopes are pinned on Cagle, the law of averages and a fair share of the "breaks."

COLORFUL FINISH. To make it a colorful finish to the eastern season, the greatest crowd of the year in this gridiron sector is expected to pack the Yankee stadium to capacity, fixed officially at 82,000. To meet the biggest demand ever witnessed for tickets to any football game in the east, every inch of space in the big American league pack has been utilized.

The scramble for pasteboards has been little short of sensational. Speculators tonight were reported to be asking and obtaining as high as $150 a pair for such tickets as they could obtain in even reasonably desirable locations. The demand at almost any price exceeded the supply, with a complete sell-out reported by both institutions.

Good Old Wayward Staggers His Critics

Good old Wayward Boye, a long-shot fool when he cares to be, tip-sed out of the mint julep sector Thursday night with a record that gagged his critics.

Wayward had picked Georgia and Kentucky to win. Georgia through handsomely while Kentucky was tied by Tennessee after playing the Vols decisively. It was even better than a moral victory Wayward. No one but Wayward would have been foolish enough to those two. Even his best friends told him ao.

Wayward wrote the following before the games were played:

Worn to a shredded lettuce leaf of his former self and mildh insane with the long strain of the football season, Wayward gave his dome a mighty wrench and picked two of the longest shot out of the basket since Donerail won the Kentucky Derby.

Wayward picks his money pair as Georgia and Kentucky, He can get 200 to 1 on them.

Wayward said of his long shot parlay:

"Georgia's line was good enough to whip Yale and North Carolina and is ready to play back to that form. Austie Downs is back at quarter and the attack will have all the variety and authority it had early in the season. The Bulldogs will pass Alabams in the scoring.

Kentucky made the grievous error of underestimating Alabama's atrength and playing too loose a line at Mostgomery.

Frank Anderson, Arbiter of State Association, Names Four Prep Elevens for Playoff.

By Roy White.

Boys' High and Madison Aggies in the northern division, and Georgia Military College and Lanier High in the southern division, are the semifinalists in the G. I. A. A. football championship. That announcement was made known Friday by Frank Anderson, director of athletics of Oglethorpe University and arbiter for the G. I. A. A.

At the annual meeting and election of officers of the G. I. A. A. In September it was unanimously voted to divide the association into a northern division. It was also unanimously voted for the arbiter, Frank Anderson, to select the two outstanding teams in the northern division to play each other and the same for the southern division and the winners of the two games meet for the state G. Frank Anderson has been particularly interested in prep football circles for many years. He attends every game possible and in many instances has officiated, whenever needed. His selections for the play-off were made ball team representing the consensus While not all of the coaches in the conference felt at liberty to participate in the poll, sufficient responses were received to permit compilation of votes into a clearly defined result. Herewith the United News all-con-

Ends: Smith, of Georgia; Brandt,

Tackles: Drury, of Kentucky; Sington, of Alabama.

Center: Roberts, of Tulane. Quarter: Dodd, of Tennessee. Halfbacks: McEver, of Tennessee Banker, of Tulane.

Fullback: Holm, of Alabama.
Probably never has there been such unanimity of opinion on backfield material. The choice was more varied for linemen but the counting of votes showed well defined preference. It was indicated that the choice of the four backs might have been unan-imous but for an unwillingness on the part of some coaches to name players their teams neither had played or scouted.

The soundest candidate for All-America honors in Dixie is Fullback Tony Holm, of Alabama. Holm has shown consistent and extraordinary power in every game this season to aggregate approximately 1,400 yards gained as compared with 3,000-odd yards the Alabama team advanced the ball from scrimmage this year.

McEVER LEADS. Gene McEver is leading the conference in high scoring and may increase his lead in the South Carolina game December 7. He took the lead early in the season and his place was not threatened until Bill Banker climbed Georgia's Catfish Smith made a name for himself early in the season by scoring every one of 15 points by which Georgia humiliated Yale. Brandt, of the famous Brandt and Hug combination, was the choice of a partner for Smith.

POPULAR CHOICE. Drury was the voters' choice for tackle by a large margin. Sington is named as his partner, apparently on the grounds that the Alabama lineman who played at guard, is too rangy and fast to waste so near the center of the line. Only one man, Westbrook, of Georgia Tech, was able to last a whole game with Sington this year.

Sington's place at guard is well illed by Farris, of North Carolina, and Steele, of Florida, who were outstanding in the conference despite heir positions on defeated teams.

Notre Dame, Pittsburgh and Purdue.

In a recent football gathering only a few practice swings were needed to bring up the argument as to whether Pittsburgh or Notre Dame had the stronger football—or the strongest football team—since the argument indicated these two stood at the top. What about Purdue? 'What reason is there to figure that either Pitt or Notre Dame could beat Purdue? Neither has turned in more decisive results than Purdue's 32 to 0 against Indiana, a team good enough to ball team representing the consensus of a secret poll of conference coacles. beat Washington 26 to 6.

Officials who have seen Pittsburgh play pronounce it one of the strongest teams they have seen in years. Pitt has a fast, pow-erful line, two fine ends and a fast, elusive, hard-running backfield. And Pitt has a world of experience to call on.

Notre. Dame is the most interesting team in football to watch. It has finer blend of speed, rhythm and variety than any other team. It hasn't as much power as Pitt-and possibly no more speed. Yet Purdue must be rated upon a par with both. Welch, Harmison and Yunevitch are three star backs. Sleight is one of the best tackles of the year. Caraway is a star end. There is both offensive and defensive strength in the Purdue mixture with a schedule that has been as hard as Notre Dame's and harder than Pitt's. Any two of these three teams lugged thto action would provide a tossup where one guess would be just about as good as another.

Their different backers can't even settle the argument as to which of the three has the better backfield or the better line. It might be sufficient to state that all three backfields and all three lines will do pretty well until something better comes along. Which may not be any too soon. The Great Pointer.

When Pop Warner points for a final game at the end of the stretch he is about 102 per cent poison. Warner's records, or the records of Warner teams, in these final games through the last 25 years have been something uncanny. No available statistics are at hand, but with Carlisle, Pittsburgh and Stanford he must have won at least 90 per cent of his final season games.

Hard Traveling. To show how hard it is to make any great headway in football, even ith strong teams, consider these records:

Harvard—Lost two games, tied one. Yale—Lost two games, tied one. Harvard Army—Lost two games, tied one (with Notre Dame left). Navy—Lost two games, tied two (with Dartmouth left).

Southern California—Lost two games. Stanford—Lost two games.

Lowa-Lost two games, tied two. Pennsylvania-Lost two games.

ence in high scoring and may increase his lead in the South Carolina game December 7. He took the lead early in the season and his place was not threatened until Bill Banker climbed to within two points of his mark Thursday.

Banker demanded attention by his play against Georgia Tech and Georgia, unfortunately the only stiff competition the Green Wave has encountered during the season.

Bobby Dodd stood out in the voting. His punting and field generalship were equalty important factors in naming him for the All-Southern conference quarter. Both items were counted heavily important in defeating Vanderbilt. His punting held Kentucky at bay for three quarters and later he took the pass from McEver that paved the way for the tying touchdown.

Georgia's Catfish Smith made a name for himself early in the season

Something to look at-a meeting between Tulane and Tennessee; beween Banker and McEver.

That sophomore backfield of Harvard's—Wood, Devens, Mays and White—should be even more annoying as Juniors and seniors. Even as it was, they caused enough trouble.

They hooked Dr. Zuppke, of Illinois, only once this season, which isn't so bad in this baffling age of sudden turns.

Several hundred thousand football fans, here and there, may have taken it for granted that Notre Dame will romp through the Army, but the Army hasn't. There's nothing like having the most shining target of the season to shoot at.

Among the good ends there is also Murphy, of Boston college; convoyer, of Arkansas, and a leading star in Tappan, of Southern Roberts, of Tulane, won by the slightest edge over Eberdt, of Alabama for center. In the Louisiana State game Roberts played heads-up football to intercept a State pass and run 30 yards for a touchdown.

Vance Maree was a popular tackle selection but his position shifts between fullback and the line spoiled his selection for either position on the first team.

After a fine record at Oregon, Captain John J. McEwan is now considering one or two other posts, with no decision arranged to date.

The Navy-Dartmouth game in Philadelphia is a hard one to dope. The Navy also has had a better team than the season's count will show. Dartmouth, with Marsters, would be almost a certainty. Without Marsters, this will be one of the closest games of the season, with almost no marting in either way. Both teams are good, but neither has any advantage that will show in advance. This looks to be another one waiting for the breaks.

For the first time in years no player from Michigan or Illinois is named on the first team. Chicago, Wisconsin and Indiana also failed to place men. Wesley Fesler, of Ohio State, ranked as the leading offensive end, and Robert Tanner, of Minnesota, described by the coaches as the best defensive wingman, are given the flank positions on the first team. Fesler was selected for the second consecutive season.

Milton Erickson, Northwestern center, was given first team ranking over Eddie Kawal, of Illinois, by the margin of one vote. He played consistently good footabli all season, and gained a reputation for excellent defensive work, especially against Illinois and his rival, Kawal.

UNANIMITY.

The pickers were well agreed upon Glenn Harmeson, of Purdue, as first team quarterback. Harmeson was a triple-threat back who stood out in all of Purdue's victories.

Harmeson's teammate, Ralph "Pest" Welch, and Captain Willis Glassgow, of Iowa, gained the halfback positions. Glassgow was rated as the best running back in the conference, in addition to being a capable kicker and passer. Welch did not carry the ball as often as last season, but his blocking for Harmeson and Yunevich, as well as his ability to gain when called upon, made him a solid choice. He also did part of the kicking and passing.

By L. S. Cameron.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—(Unite News.)—In the excitement over the Notre Dame-Army game, which is monopolized football attention during the present week, numerous other excellent gridiron attractions have becoverlooked.

The Irish-Cadet battle is not the only contest in tomorrow's schedula. There are a number of games which conceivably may furnish closer competition and better football than the headline attraction.

Dartmouth has one of the best teams of the year, having been defeated only by Yale, and is a slight favorite over the Navy, which has not had an especially noteworthy season. But for the fact that Al Marsters, the Green's great quarterback, is out of the game with an injured back, Dartmouth would be considered a certain winner.

Detroit and Georgetown furnish the hadline attraction in the midwest. Detroit recently suffered its first defett in 22 games, but hopes to reestablish itself as one of the nation's better teams by decisively defeating Georgetown, which played the games with Navy and West Virginia.

Southern California is expected to have little trouble defeating Washington State in the Pacific coast's major battle.

St. Mary's college, with only 700 students, today has closed a brilliant football season with its goal line crossed only once, eight victories to its credit and one scoreless tie. As result St. Mary's is mentioned St. Mary's college, with only 700 its credit and one scoreless tie. As Schalk Tipped its credit and one scoreless tie. As a result St. Mary's is mentioned prominently as the west's representative in the Rose Bowl game at Pasadena New Year's Day.

St. Mary's ended its season yesterday with a stunning victory over the powerful University of Oregon team, winning by a score of 31 to 6. And but for the lone touchdown would have made a record of being unscored on for the entire season.

Until the last quarter the remarkable record seemed about to be achieved, but a 15-yard pass by Oregon resulted in a touchdown and the blasting of St. Mary's hopes.

St. Mary's scored 198 points to its nine opponents bare six. The team, coached by "Slip" Madegan, former pupil of Knute Rockne, numbered among its victims the west coast Army

In the only other outstanding game on the Pacific coast yesterday the University of California at Los Angeles won from the Grizzlies of Montana, 14 to 0. It was the Bruins' first conference victory.

Only one more coast conference game remains on the program. That will be played at Los Angeles tomorrow, when the University of Southern California will tangle with an invading Cougar team from Washington State college.

Defeat for either team will remove it from the five-cornered tie for the conference lead. U. S. C., Washington State, Stanford, California and Oregon share the honors with one conference defeat each.

CHICAGO, Nov. 29. — (United News.)—Ray Schalk, former White Sox catcher and manager and later assistant to Manager McGraw, of the New York Gionte and McGraw, of the New York Giants, was seen today in a conference with William L. Veeck, president of the Chicago Cubs.

The meeting led to rumors that the former American league star would replace Grover Land as coach and assistant to Manager Joe McCarthy. Schalk indicated that the report he would go to Brooklyn was incorrect, would go to Brooklyn was incorrect, and that he was considering offers from three clubs.

DOWN TO WORK FOR BULLDOGS

Alex Puts Team Through Short Signal Drill as Starter.

By Ben Cothran.

So Tech took its victory over Auburn and got right down to work for those terrible Bulldogs.

Judging from what the Bulldogs accomplished on a Thanksgiving afternoon, they are to take a great deal of working-for. Alexander put his Tech squad down to work Friday and from low until December 6, the day before Tech meets Georgia, it's going to be work and plenty of it for all of the young gentlemen interested in ad-

Friday Alex, The Man, spent part of the afternoon in talking about Thursday's performance. Then the lads galloped out into the cold and ran signals, after which they went in, dressed and deployed for the day. A harder session is expected this afternoon, and Monday the tough work starts.

BETTER SHOWING.

A great number of people, mulling over the Tech-Auburn game while eyeing the turkey hash, are convinced that Tech showed a bit more drive, power and stamina against Auburn. The Tiger, true enough, wasn't as touch as Vanderbilt, Alabama or Notre Dame. But he was tough enough. It took a lot of hammering to make a dent in his side. You saw that Thursday afternoon.

AUBURN IMPROVES.

Floyd took them over in mid-season, instilled fight and gave them ideas about winning football games. You about winning football games. You could not, of course, expect Auburn to rush right on the field and beat someone like Tennessee, Vandy or Kentucky. But Auburn has played swell football and will probably be playing a great deal better next year. Captain Long, the devastating fullback who were playing guard just a couple who was playing guard just a couple of games ago, will not be with them. But there are a couple of youngsters who showed drive in the backfield—Davidson and Young. They will be realizable men.

ATHENS. Ga., Nov. 29.—The Georgia Bulldogs reached Athens this morning and started work this afternoon for the final game of the season with Georgia Tech. The workout consisted of a signal drill which the players of Utah Aggies, the University of Utah was on top, of the Rocky Mountain football conference heap to day for the third time in the last four years.

The Utes, under Coach Ike Armestrong, climaxed a brilliant season with a 27-to-6 victorys over their ancient Aggie rivals on Turkey Day, while the University of Denver Pioneers went into a tie for second place with the University of Coach Harry Hughes' Colorado Aggies, Coach Harry Hughes' Colorado Aggies, Wountain title with a track meet performance against the University of Wyoming Cowboy last week. Wyoming had the most disastrous season of the 12 conference teams, taking the small end of seven scores during the gridiron campaign.

The Colorado School of Mines, by taking the short end of a battle with coronal, enabled the Tigers to climch sixth place in the season's standings. Three Thanksgiving Day games ended the football season in this conference.

Brigham Young University, with four games won and two lost, finished the football season in this conference.

The Colorado Teachers college, three wins and two losses; Montan State college, two and one; Utah Aggies, the end four; Colorado Agricultural college, four and three; Colorado School of Mines, one and five, and Western State College, no conference wictories and five defeats.

ORVIS BROS. & CO. NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—The most important news item affecting cotton today was the department of agriculture report showing that only 79.1 per cent of the amount of cotton gined prior to November 1 classed as tendesable against contracts. This naturally leaves 20.9 per cent untenderable, or an excessively large proportion of the crop. As picking since November 1 is principally of low grades, the proportionate amount of untenderable cotton in the remainder of the crop will show even worse than today's report.

Market Gossip GEORGIA GINNINGS

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—Reduced crop predictions, indications of comparatively amail ginnings, absence of hedging and sood cables gave the market a good tone and higher range of prices. Liverpool act wanced while our markets were closed and then came in strong today due to increased trade buying and scarce contracts.

Kpinners' takings were disappointing in that they fell under last week as well as last year indicating a slowing down in mill purchases.

Hearish sentiment is still much in evidence. Selling by this element may hold prices down or even cause a further restricted but the fundamentals are builts and the next movement of consequence is likely to be upward.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—(47)—Arthur C. Needles, president of the Norfolk & Western railway, said today that the road's expenditures for account of road and equipment would total about $15,000,000 in 1930. He said November gross revenues and surplus would compare favorably with the same month last year and that he expected December earnings would approximate those of the last month of 1928.

More Irregularity In Business Trend

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—(P)—
Bradstreets tomorrow will say:
Trade and industry appear more irregular, in that gains in retail trade, proceeding from more seasonable weather and the opening of holiday buying, contrast with a fairly well maintained volume of wholesale and jobbing trade, in which fill-in business constitutes the larger volume of purchasing. Against this is to be set a further quieting in industry, which, as usual, apparently prefers to meet the inventory period with reduced supplies of goods and materials on hand.

Wall Street Briefs. NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—Extreme discrimination in the making of new commitments is urged by leading commission houses in their week-end letters to customers. It is pointed out that the action of the market during the past week indicates that the deflationary movement has not been entirely completed, and that there is a likelihood of many issues breaking below their lows of November 13. Considerable switching of stocks is expected next month in connection with the establishment of losses in 1929 incomes.

Possibility of additional gold withdrawals for shipment to Europe is expected in Wall Street to act as a deterrent to any further reduction in the New York federal reserve rediscount rate, at least until after the turn of the year. It is believed, however, that for the time being such withdrawals will be offset, as a credit factor, by the increased purchase of bills and government securities by the federal reserve banks.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29 .- (AP)-Coton was higher today on covering and some trade or commission house buying promoted by steadiness in Liverpool over the local holiday and rather a bullish interpretation of the report on grades and staples of cotton ginned prior to November 1. January contracts sold up to 17.40 or 16 points net higher and closed at 17.36 with the general market closing steady at net advances of 12 to 15 points.

steady at net advances of 12 to 15 points.

The opening was steady, unchanged to 5 points higher in response to the relatively firm showing of the Liver-pool market. There was some southern selling and liquidation which caused irregularity after the call, but offerings were light and the market soon worked up on week-end covering and buying for trade and commission house account. GAINS 14 TO 15. NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 29.—(P)—
Two father bullish private crop estimates caused a slight advance in the cotton market today, although trading was only moderate due to expectations of considerable private estimates and the approach of the government's final crop report. January advanced to 17.33 and closed 2 points under that figure for a net gain of 14 points. The general market closed steady at net advances of 14 to 15 points.

Liverpool cables were favorable and resulted in an opening advance here of 1 to 4 points. Some selling was encountered right after the start and the initial gain was lost, but the market promptly became steadier under trade buying and covering by shorts on the two bullish private crop estimates of 14,380,000 bales and 11,744.000 bales. NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 29 .- (P)- shorts on the two bullsh private crop estimates of 14,380,000 bales and 11,744.000 bales.

Prices were on the upgrade most of the morning with January trading at 17.33, March 17.60, and May 17.85, or 17 to 18 points above the lows and 15 to 16 points over yesterday's close.

During the afternoon trading was quiet and prices fluctuated within the early range. Near the end, however, the market firmed up again and May contracts made a new high at 17.65, while other positions practically duplicated the earlier highs. Finsiprices were at about the best with March at 17.60 and May 17.65.

tier husband laughed down upon her upturned face before he bent his head and kissed her. "Just because Jack wants to see Ajax is no sign he would wish to marry an ape," he said, adding, more seriously, "I have always believed you were mistaken in never permitting me to tell our boy anything concerning my early life. Had I told him of my experiences as Tarzan of the Apes, it would have been best, should the jungle lust ever claim him."

But Lady Greystoke only shook her head as she always did when the subject was broached. Never could she bring herself to tell her son the story of Tarzan. What desires would arise in his young brain were he to know his father had been raised to manhood by a tribe of fierce anthropoid apes! In the meanwhile, Jack was enjoying to the full the stolen pleasure of the music hall, arriving just as "Ajax THE MARVEL" began his act. REAL ESTATE FOR RENI | REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

When It's A FOR GRATE, STOVE OR FURNACE Even Bet

Before your tires get so thin that it's a even bet whether the air inside or the air outside will blow thru first, you'd better dash down on what you have left an' let me put your bus in shape to keep on runnin'. I got tires for your car an' I got terms for you an' both is the best that there is to offer—You'll like 'em both an' I don't mean possibly. Of course the most popular plan I got right now is this here dollar down an' the rest easy—an' everybody usin' it is findin' it the easiest they've ever tried. Come down an' try your hand at it, come in today an' ride easy Sunday.

Yours Daytonally,

Fix You Up
